Anti-Tammany Organizations Invited to Another Conference.

uptown, somewhere in the neighborhood of Madison Square.

The daily meetings of the Executive Committee will be secret, but Chairman Smith said this morning that he would give out to the public ail information that was deemed advisable, and which would not, in his judgment, interfere with the object in hand.

"We are anxious to take the press and the public into our confidence," he said, "but it would not do to have all our meetings open. We have nothing to conceal, however, and are simply out to make the best figt we can against Tammany."

Tammany Meetings Will Be Held in All Districts but one.

The Tammany Hall meetings to elect delegates to the Democratic State Convention will be held to hight and to-work night in all of the districts except the first, which has already chosen its quota of three delegates. New York is entitled to ninety delegates, and so many wish to go as delegates that the leaders have a hard time of it in making selections, without hurting the feelings of some aspirant for the honor.

The State Democracy will hold conventions to night in every Assembly District to elect a contesting delegation to go to Saratogs.

The body, that of a strong, trugged man—supposed to have been a tramp—was lying upon my embalming table, and to assist in disrobing it; table, and to assist in disrobing it; table, and to assist in disrobing it; trained one arm in the air, and tled the hand by a string from the celling. I dropped a pair of selssors on the floor, and was stooping slowly to pick them up, when I received a staggering blow on the head, and at the same time felt the cold hand of the dead man fall off my head and strike the lamp, putting it to the air and leaving me in total darkness, I had not taken a lively step for weeks, but I can assure you that I moved out of that dark room in a hurry, and I did not go there again till daylight. And I have not suffered from rheumatism since that night. I found that the lamp had burned off the string so that the arm fell, striking me."
